

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE MEMBERSHIP

Flexible coworking for impact-led teams

Many social enterprises work differently.

Small teams. Part-time staff. Freelancers. Trustees. People who don't need, or want, a desk every day. At the same time, we know how valuable it can be to occasionally come together in a shared, community-minded space.

That's why we've created the Social Enterprise Membership: a flexible, shared coworking option designed specifically for social enterprises.

How it works

One simple membership, shared across your organisation.

- Choose a monthly allowance of coworking credits
- Your team decides who uses them and when
- Each visit counts as one credit
- No need to pre-book, you can just turn up
- Multiple people can use the space at the same time

This makes it ideal for:

- Team days and monthly catch-ups
- Trustee meetings
- Focused work away from home

Occasional in-person collaboration without long-term commitments

- Credits reset monthly and do not roll over.

About Tribe Party

Tribe Party is a social enterprise coworking space based in Portobello, Edinburgh, just off the high street and five minutes from the beach.

Our work is grounded in Work · Make · Share, supporting impact-led organisations to work effectively, connect meaningfully, and grow sustainably. We believe flexible, welcoming spaces are part of a healthier enterprise ecosystem, especially for organisations working for social and environmental good.
